

FACULTY NOW INITIATIVE

The University of Florida FACULTY NOW INITIATIVE provides a source of funds to immediately help faculty teach, conduct research and serve the state, nation and the world.

- The university will invest funds equal to 4% of your commitment total, starting immediately, that is repeated annually through June 2013.

{ THE BENEFITS }

- Immediate distribution of the UF investment; no waiting period for the endowment to generate investment income.
- UF investment is flexible and can be used for start-up support for faculty, equipping laboratories, supporting graduate assistants and more.
- Donors under the plan receive “recognition credit” for the university funds.

EXAMPLE: A $1 MILLION commitment to support a professorship generates $40,000 annually through June 2013.
