About the Program
This program offers a hands-on historical overview of France and Britain in the Age of Revolution, with exceptional access to archives, research libraries, museums and monuments. Interdisciplinary by design, this course is an ideal opportunity to begin or to pursue serious research in the humanities (with an emphasis on history, literature, political theory, and art history). After a 6-day intensive period in Paris, we will spend 3 weeks at Cambridge University, with a daytrip to Bath and Stonehenge, and a weekend in London, exploring the history of France and Britain at the end of the 18th Century. This is one of UF’s oldest study abroad programs, dating back to 1983.

About the Location
Cambridge University in Cambridge, England, celebrated its 800th anniversary in 2009, and is the top-ranked research university in the world. Mentoring of student writing skills has always been a central feature, following the traditional Cambridge system of one-on-one student/faculty “supervisions.”

Excursions
This program includes 6 days in Paris, 1 day-trip to Bath and Stonehenge, and a 3-day weekend in London.

Housing
In Paris at the Cite Universitaire, single dorm rooms with shared bathrooms; in Cambridge: you will live in a double room with shared bathrooms at St. Edmund’s College, which sits in its own park-like grounds. Classes and meals take place in the college, which is 5 minutes by bike from the center of Cambridge. Ethernet access available for free in both Paris and Cambridge.

Understand the Influence of the Age of Revolution in Britain and France on the Modern World.

Learn How to Conduct Research in the Humanities.

Experience UK Student Life at the Top-Ranked University in the World.

Course Information
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
Department of History
Course is taught by Sheryl Kroen, from the UF History Department

HIS4956: Britain and France in the Age of Revolution
6 UF GPA credits
2014 Pricing
2014 Undergraduate Program Fee: TBA

A $300 nonrefundable deposit toward the total cost of the program is due at the time of application. The remaining fees are due no later than 45 days prior to departure. If you receive financial aid, you can defer payment until it disburses.

What’s Included:
Tuition for 6 credits. In Paris: lodging, two group dinners, museum entries, transportation; Transportation between Paris and Cambridge. In Cambridge: lodging and 3 meals/day, 7 days/week; bicycle rentals, library privileges Also: transportation to and from and in London, excursion to Bath and Stonehenge, theater in London, 4 group meals, international health insurance, and emergency medical assistance

What’s Not Included:
Round-trip airfare to Paris and from Cambridge/London, meals other than the group meals in Paris/London, additional personal travel, and personal expenses.

Financial Aid
Most financial aid that you would receive on campus during the summer can be applied toward the cost of this study abroad program. UFIC recommends that you speak with your financial aid advisor about your financial aid eligibility for study abroad. More information can be found at Student Financial Affairs

Scholarships
UFIC offers summer scholarships for qualified students. This year’s summer scholarship deadline is February 5, 2014. Apply online at www.ufic.ufl.edu/sas/Scholarships.html. Additional scholarships available through the History department.