

UF in Prague

European Studies
Summer B 2014: Dates TBA

About the Program

The Center for European Studies offers you an opportunity to make degree progress while exploring life in one of the most enchanting European capitals.

Courses contextualize subject matter vis-à-vis your immediate surroundings: the beginning language course prepares. Most courses taken in Prague count toward the Minor or Certificate in East-Central European Studies (ECES) or European Union Studies (EUS).

About the Location

Prague, Czech Republic, is a modern, cosmopolitan city in an idyllic, historic setting. With spectacular Gothic and Baroque architecture, green hills and parks, bike trails along the river, and countless other attractions (castles, museums, galleries, churches, live music, plays, films, international and vegan-friendly cuisine), "Magic Prague" has something for everyone. You will especially enjoy its affordable prices and student discounts. Prague also provides easy access for travel to Vienna, Berlin, Krakow or Budapest.

Excursions

In-country excursions, including one to Terezin, usually consist of daytrips and will be announced close to program start date.

Housing

You will be live in shared bedrooms in student housing. UF faculty lives onsite in the same residence hall.

Be Introduced to the culture of Prague and Central Europe through Relevant Area Studies Courses and Excursions.
