About the Location
Salzburg is considered by many to be one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. With a population of about 150,000, Salzburg is situated in the heart of Europe on the northern edge of the eastern Alps right at the Austrian-German border. Surrounded by picturesque mountains, the city still mirrors in its historical center – a declared UNESCO World Heritage Site - more than a thousand years of European history and culture. Its rich and vibrant cultural heritage is reflected in concerts, festivals and a great variety of events throughout the year.

Excursions
Excursions include a 3-day trip to Munich including hotel stay, breakfast, and events; 4-day trip to Vienna, guided walking tours, palace tours, Mauthausen Concentration Camp, and a daytrip to Salzkammergut lake region.

Housing
You will be housed in Austrian homes (one or two students per home). The home stay provides a great opportunity to learn about Austrian culture from an "insider" perspective. Dorm option also available.
